Andrew Moffat studied law, then spent two decades gaining extensive commercial, financial and governance experience across a broad range of industries, and in 2012 brought this background to the resolution of commercial disputes.

His experience of getting deals done in the banking and investment banking spheres gives him invaluable insight in to the expressed, unacknowledged and unconscious barriers to agreement. It arms him with the credibility, skills and flexibility to guide parties towards constructively achieving agreement, and the resilience to keep them on track whilst the possibility of resolution remains.

Andrew is a Senior Fellow in the Melbourne Law School, delivering Melbourne University's Mediation subjects in both the Juris Doctor and the Melbourne Law Masters. He also works in the mediation programmes of the Monash University JD and the Resolution Institute. In 2013, he received a LEADR Practitioner Award for Significant Contribution to ADR, and he is included in the 2018 edition of Doyle's Guide to Leading Mediators.

Complementing his mediation practice, Andrew devotes time to leadership roles in the not-for-profit sector, culminating in his appointment as Chair of Vision Australia, one of Australia's largest charities. These roles arm him with inside understanding into how organisations make decisions.

Andrew's appointments as Mediator have arisen in many different circumstances

- Proceedings in the Victorian and NSW Supreme Courts, County Court and District Court
- Legislated mediation schemes under the Farm Debt Mediation Act and the Retail Leases Act
- Contractual dispute resolution clauses
- Federal and State government sponsorship to resolve organisational disputes
